WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1898.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1907

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE.

I.
Observe you man, downcast and sad;
His wife has gone away, egad!

II.
You other man is bowed with woe.
It seems his wife declines to go.

III.
We aim to give you, as it were,
The school of humor you prefer.

—Courier-Journal.

BEFORE MATTER FOR PUBLICATION MUST BE HANDLED IN BEFORE 9 O'CLOCK A. M.

In the Nicholas Circuit Court the case of W. T. Buckler's Executor against Mrs. W. T.
Buckler for the recovery of bonds valued at $10,000 was decided in favor of Mrs. Buckler.

The Eagles are greatly elated over the big seat sale which opened this morning at William's Drugstore and indications are that those who neglect to reserve their seats now will have to stand up tomorrow night when the burlesque of "Romeo and Juliet" will be presented. Last night's rehearsal was a perfect one in every way and the boys have done wonders during the past week in the way of rounding up their work under the skillful direction of Mr. Owens.
The beautiful costumes arrived today and they are the finest ever seen here. Every ticket-holder will be presented with a beautiful souvenir program containing the story and words of the songs.

W. W. Plummer of Bath county has invented a mail box and had it approved by the United States Mail Department. It has signals showing that mail has been deposited by the carrier, that it has been taken out by the owner, or that mail has been deposited by the owner. It has a corrugated bottom, enabling a letter lying flat to be more easily removed. Mr. Plummer has applied for a patent.

Oliver Iselin of New York, inherits $3,000,000.

On the opening night next Monday, October 7th, the Myrtle-Harder Stock Company, the largest and best week stand ever brought to Maysville, will begin a week's engagement at The Washington. This company carries a quarter hundred people and the plays are all new this season. On the opening night the society comedy-drama, "The Best Man Wins," will be presented and each night a new play and new vaudeville will be offered. This is without doubt the highest salaried stock company on the road and in the larger cities they command 25, 50 and 75 cents, but the price during the entire week will be 10, 20 and 30 cents. More than that on the opening night, one thirty cent ticket will be given away with every thirty cent ticket purchased before 5 p. m. Monday. Remember this is only good for the opening play. Seats will be on sale at William's Drugstore Saturday morning.

For the purpose of mutual protection against those who evade paying their accounts and go from one physician to another, refusing to pay any, the physicians of Clark county have organized what is known as a Physicians' Protective Association. Each physician furnishes the Secretary with a list of those above described and the Secretary supplies each physician with a complete list of such delinquents.

BOOZER BADLY CUT
By Falling on Bottle in Pocket-- Adams Countian Comes to Grief

Douglas Cople of Adams county, O., while in an intoxicated state fell yesterday morning opposite the Grand View Hotel in Front street, and cut a severe gash in his chin from which the blood flowed copiously. Had he not have received the proper medical attention which he did, the man certainly would have died from loss of blood.

Ladies' Suits

We are certainly proud of this department this year. We have used every effort in selecting one of the largest and best assortments that have ever been shown in Maysville. The styles, the colors, the fits are as near perfect as are shown by any house in this country.

Whether you want a $15 Suit or a $50 Suit we have it, and will guarantee a perfect fit, too.

If you want a Suit, we can suit you.

Take a look whether you want to buy or not.
We like to keep you posted on the styles.
